THE INTRODUCTION Jennifer and Jian became acquainted through their close high school friends. The couple's first date was every girl's dream; a date to the prom at the Aquarium of the Pacific. With the help of family, including their pet dogs, Jian prepared the perfect proposal. Their home was filled with rose petals, champagne and chocolates. As Jennifer met the dogs for their evening walk, she saw that each was sporting a shirt. One read, "Will you marry my Daddy?" and the other, "Please say yes!"
