

GIVING THANKS

Renowned wedding consultant Mary Dann has branched out to create an elegant line of upscale stationery printed on 100% recycled paper that is as beautiful as it is biofriendly. In partnership with Mimio Papers, The Mary Dann Wedding Collection primarily focuses on notes of gratitude that express the wedding couple's thanks to their individual wedding vendors, including stylized envelopes for holding payment checks and/or gratuities. Additional designs include requests to individuals to be in the wedding party, messages of thanks to attendants, and even heartfelt love notes between the bride and groom to be read privately before the ceremony. $5.50 – 6.50 per card; marydann.com.

BEST DRESSED

You may only wear it once, but you can gaze at your beautiful wedding dress long after the Big Day without ever going near your closet. San Francisco-based artist Jennifer Angillello of All About The Dress will create a stunning illustration of you in your gown that comes exquisitely framed and ready to display. Simply submit 6-8 photos of yourself wearing the gown – including detail, full-length, and close-up shots – and Angillello does the rest. The custom art pieces are 14"x18" including matte and frame, and have a stylized, vintage look that transforms even the most modern gown into a timeless classic. $425; for more information, visit aboutthedress.com.

STYLE GUIDE

Settling on your personal wedding style just got easier. In her dazzling new book Style Your Dream Wedding, style guru Susie Coelho walks couples through the process of choosing and producing the perfect type of wedding to match their personalities, be it classic, beach, contemporary, countryside, garden, fanciful, or exotic. The oversized book features hundreds of luscious images for inspiration, plus pull-out pages, removable booklets and lists, and a CD of classic wedding music. Coelho covers everything from fashion to flowers, and provides insight on the many visual details that will make your wedding uniquely yours. Hardcover; $49.99; National Booksellers.
